

CORONER'S JURY CHARGES ITALIANS WITH MURDER

INQUEST IS HELD YESTERDAY
OVER REMAINS OF JOHN
W. CLARK.

Judge H. H. Atkinson, as acting coroner for Tonopah yesterday held an inquest over the remains of John W. Clark, who passed away at the Miners' hospital Tuesday afternoon as a result of knife wounds received in an altercation at Millers in which he was essaying to take the part of peacemaker. The verdict of the jury was that he came to his death from a knife wound inflicted by either Joe Dominick or Antonio Dominick, the two Italians who were in the scuffle that resulted in the stabbing.

The entire story of how the affair happened was told during the inquest by W. D. Kane, Millard Kearns and F. B. Ogren, who came up from Millers for that purpose. Clark was aged 27 years and was a native of Panacea Valley, Lincoln county, Nevada, where his aged father still resides. He is also survived by two sisters, both of whom are residents of Tonopah. The real names of the Italians, proved to be Dominick, and not Antonini, as has been stated heretofore. The trouble started about midnight Sunday in the Turf saloon when Joe Dominick went over to where Ogren was standing and struck him. The fight was stopped and in a few minutes all hands had a drink and the trouble was apparently forgotten. Later Clark came in and after having a drink had his supper. Ogren, Clark, Kearns and Kane started out to go home. Kearns was in the rear of the party and noticed the two Dominicks follow. On the outside of the building Antonio Dominick went up to Kane and struck him. Kane tripped the Italian, who immediately regained his feet and attempted to continue the altercation. Kearns managed to get between the two men when he heard Joe Dominick explain: "You get my brother; I will get you." Kearns was then cut on the hand and also on the side and abdomen. The wounds, however, were superficial. He ran from the scene but stopped a short distance away and returned to the saloon, where all the parties had again congregated with the exception of Clark, who went to his cabin, a distance of about forty feet away, accompanied by an Austrian, who had also received a couple of scratches from the knife of the Italian.

Judge Atkinson secured a statement from Clark Monday night, after he had been brought to the Miners' hospital, which was practically the same version he told to a Bonanza reporter. He could not identify the party who stabbed him. When Dominick attacked Kane, Clark grabbed his arm and almost at the same instant he was stabbed in the abdomen.

Dr. Turner, the county physician of Goldfield came over from that city yesterday and during the afternoon performed an autopsy upon the deceased.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning under the auspices of the Miners' Union of which the deceased was a member.

UNIFORM DANCE SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY EVENING

VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT
PLANNING FOR ENJOYABLE TIME.

All arrangements are about completed for the Uniform dance to be given by the Tonopah Volunteer Fire department at the Miners' Exchange hall next Monday evening, and from the present appearance it will be one of the biggest affairs of its kind held this year. The committee in charge is exerting every effort to make the evening one of enjoyment and have secured Marino's orchestra of Goldfield, which is composed of five pieces, to furnish the music.

An attractive program of dances has been arranged and the volunteers will endeavor to again prove their ability as hosts. The tickets can be secured from the different business houses as well as from members of the department.

COMMITTEES ON FOURTH OF JULY MEET TONIGHT

BUSINESS MEN ARE INVITED TO ATTEND CONFERENCE AT GYMNASIUM.

The various committees appointed by the fraternal and industrial organizations of Tonopah will meet this evening at the fire house to discuss plans for arranging a great big celebration for the fast approaching natal day.

The meeting will not be attended strictly by committeemen for an invitation has been extended to business men and others interested to also be present, for suggestions will be gladly received from anyone.

It is planned to hold a celebration this year that will far eclipse all previous efforts, and the committees have evinced a desire to start the ball rolling at an early date.

The meeting tonight will be called to order at 8 o'clock sharp and all parties interested are requested to be on hand at the drop of the gavel.

ARGUMENTS MADE IN CASES BEFORE HIGHER COURTS

HABEAS CORPUS AND BANK
CASES ARE UP FOR HEARING AT CARSON.

Assistant District Attorney Jack Morris returned yesterday from Carson where he has been transacting legal business for the last week. Last Friday, with District Attorney Cleve H. Baker, he appeared before the federal court and argued on the demurrer to the complaint in the case of the First National Bank of San Francisco versus Nye county, which was submitted, although final briefs will be filed later. The plaintiffs were represented by Attorneys Sanders and Keeler.

On Tuesday Morris and Baker appeared before the supreme court in the habeas corpus matter, concerning the four strike breakers who were found guilty of carrying concealed weapons. The argument was conducted by District Attorney Baker and submitted for a ruling which will be made later. The defendants were represented by Judge J. F. Dennis and H. H. Brown.

LEADERS OF DEMOCRACY HOLD BIG POW WOW

MANY NOTABLES ATTEND A SECRET CONFERENCE AT RENO TUESDAY NIGHT.

A sensation, one of the real kind, such as were produced years ago by the politicians of the old school, is expected today, for, according to reports that were wafted down from Reno and Carson, there is something in the wind among the democratic cohorts.

For there congregated in Reno Tuesday night quite an array of talent, among whom were noticed George A. Bartlett, democratic congressman; Jimmie Sweeney, democratic supreme judge; F. H. Norcross, also a democratic supreme judge; Denver S. Dickerson, democratic acting and lieutenant governor; George Thatcher, democratic politician from Nye county; Charles S. Sprague, democratic newspaperman from Goldfield and also a member of the democratic banking board, appointed by the democratic acting and lieutenant governor. And then comes the real startling news that this noted assemblage was joined by Sam Platt, republican United States district attorney, but it may prove to be that Sam was only in town looking after other business and did not associate with the democrats.

Carson was reported completely deserted as far as democratic politicians were concerned, with the exception of James Finch, chief secretary for the acting governor, who was left to hold down the lid during the absence of the chief executive. He was to have been assisted by Attorney General Stoddard, State Treasurer Ryan and Secretary of State Douglass, but these gentlemen could not get away from their homes in different outside cities and consequently announced that Carson would not be graced with their presence until the next monthly payday.

From the gathering, which is a noted one in many ways, there appears to be something of great importance in the wind. Hardly any two of the gang are on speaking terms, which is not at all surprising. Dickerson, Bartlett and several others are out for the governorship, according to reports, and war between prospective candidates is only natural. Sweeney has the senatorial bee buzzing around his cute little skull, while Sprague does not know what he wants. The bad blood between Sweeney and Denver is of long standing and if they have swapped kisses it is the result of the visit of Bartlett, to whom great credit is due.

Wireless reports received late last night stated that Bartlett was also in on the conference and it is presumed that efforts are being made to keep him from announcing his candidacy as senator. Bartlett is very popular in this state and would secure at least one vote if his name was on the ticket, and provided that he had registered and was allowed to vote, otherwise the total column for his ballots would contain a great big blank.

The result of the meeting will be awaited, with interest by the local democrats, for it is a clinch that things were doing at the meeting, although no disturbance was reported at the office of the Reno chief of police.

STRONG ENDORSEMENT FOR Gold Medal Flour

Many Handsome Things Have Been Said About GOLD MEDAL FLOUR

by those who have used it. But if you haven't read the others read this one. In it the University of Nevada Chemist goes on record as believing that no where else in the west is a flour which is the equal of GOLD MEDAL. This is a letter that money could not buy, for back of it stands all the prestige and authority of Nevada's highest educational institution. Here is the letter:

Nevada Agricultural Experiment Station,
"Department of Food and Drug Inspection."
Reno, Nevada, April 29, 1910.

"Mr. Paul D. Roberts,
"Riverside Flour Mill,
"Reno, Nevada.

"Dear Sir:

"We have made an analysis of your 'Gold Medal Flour' and find as follows:

Moisture	10.55 per cent
Nitrogen	1.94 per cent
Protein (Nitrogen X 6.25).....	12.12 per cent
Ether Extract (Fat)	1.37 per cent
Crude Fiber11 per cent
Nitrogen Free Extract	75.26 per cent
Ash59 per cent

"Further examination showed the flour to be unbleached and free from foreign matter. From ten grains of the flour we obtained 1.58 grams of dry gluten, or 15.8 per cent.

"For your information will say to you that the above analysis shows this flour to be far superior to any flour I have examined in all my experience in the western states.

"SANFORD C. DINSMORE,
"Chemist in Charge of Food Control."

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR won its name at the great world's fair in Chicago, where, in competition with flour from all parts of the world, it was awarded the gold medal. At Omaha it took the Blue Ribbon, and wherever it has been tested it has won the same high commendation as that which is embodied in Prof. Dinsmore's letter. Specify GOLD MEDAL when you order of your grocer. Every sack is absolutely guaranteed. You will then get the best flour in the market, you will save money, and you will be showing your loyalty to Nevada industries.

thorough manner and a very interesting program will be rendered throughout the evening. Of course, the usual big spread will be in evidence, for the Eagles pride themselves on numbering a half dozen prominent caterers in their membership and their big eats are always an important part in their social affairs.

The visitors will not be restricted to members of the organization and invitations can be secured from the committee or members. The ladies especially are invited for it is for the entertainment of the gentler sex that the social was planned.

On Friday, June 3, the Eagles' Social club will entertain at a smoker at the Nevada theater and several good boxing matches have been arranged. Invitations for this affair can also be secured from the committee.
